Keeping Wealth in the Family

Your Estate Matters

June 2016

We are delighted to announce that our company name will be changing to Frankel Sims Law as of June 1, 2016. There has been no change in management, our contact information will remain the same, and we will continue to provide the same high level of service on which we have built our reputation. As our business has grown and evolved, we felt it was time for this change.

We have updated our logo to reflect who we are today and to symbolize our dynamic future. We are finalizing our new website and will share the new address with you upon its completion.

With our rebranding, we aim to maximize group synergies to further build the relationships and trust we have with you, our loyal clients and friends. Frankel Sims Law will continue to offer a full range of legal services for Estate and Trust Planning, Controversy and Administration.

Firm Retreat Takes Us To Sedona, Arizona

At Frankel Sims Law, we believe that a culture of collaboration is one of the most important responsibilities we have as a firm. Every year, our team comes together outside the office to recharge and relax. In April, we hit the road for the geological wonderland, multi-hued stone formations of Sedona, Arizona. Together, we explored hiking and ATV trails and took in the beauty of red rock country.

It was a great way to experience new things and explore new cultures. There were so many benefits that emerged from our time together: team building, relaxing and just being together in an environment that encourages thoughts and discussion. For a few days, the high desert became our setting away from work.

Jane Frankel Sims Named a 2016 Leadership In Law Honoree By Maryland Daily Record

We are proud to announce that Jane Frankel Sims, firm founder and managing attorney, has been named as a 2016 Leadership in Law honoree by the Maryland Daily Record. Just 25 members of the Maryland legal community were recognized with this award for their outstanding work.

“Leadership in Law honorees devote time, talent and energy to bettering the legal profession in addition to the communities in which they live and work,” explained Suzanne Fischer-Huettner, publisher of The Daily Record. “They demonstrate a commitment to improving communities throughout our state through notable pro bono work and other means. They are also committed to mentoring, which is a key component of this award.”

Nominees were asked to outline their career accomplishments, community involvement and mentoring activities that would distinguish them as outstanding leaders in the law. The award was established in 2001 to honor Maryland legal professionals — lawyers and judges — whose dedication to their occupation and to their communities deserves particular recognition.

Frankel Sims Law Supports Lustgarten Foundation Walk For Pancreatic Cancer Research

On April 17th, Jane’s entire family walked in the Lustgarten Foundation walk to support Pancreatic Cancer Research in Rye, New York. Our team, Marc’s Minions, walked in support of Jane’s step-father, Marc Witman, who is battling pancreatic cancer.

Pancreatic Cancer Research Walks are designed as fundraisers to increase urgently needed available dollars for pancreatic cancer research. The Lustgarten Foundation is committed to heightening public awareness of pancreatic cancer diagnosis, treatment, and prevention and providing informational support for pancreatic cancer patients, their families, and friends.
